HOLIDAY CATALOG

August 28, 2014–January 5, 2015

From chore TO CHEER

Invite your friends over and wrap up your gifts—and your holiday to-do list. With all the materials to create cards, décor, and packaging, we've got what you need to make the holidays merry and bright.

*H*appy holidays—my favorite time of year for gathering with loved ones!

Recently I spoke at a gathering with more than 200 executives, and I ended with stamping, of course. I could tell that many in the audience were less than thrilled; I saw a few eyes rolling. But within minutes, jackets were taken off, ties were loosened, and people were smiling, chatting, and having fun.

Happens every time! When people get together to stamp, wonderful things happen. It's not necessarily the stamps, although our products definitely make creativity easy and fun. The stamps (and inks, paper, accessories, etc.) are the vehicle for the real magic that happens—the connecting.

And connecting during the holidays is especially rewarding. Whether we're getting together to make cards, create decorations, or have a wrapping party, reaching out to others is what makes the holidays memorable!

I hope your holidays are full of meaningful connecting—and creativity—as you gather with those you love.
